Endeavor (èn-děv ôr)

1. A conscientious or concerted effort toward a given end; an earnest effort.

The four high school years are filled with many new and different experiences for each person. Although we all do not share the same experiences, each of us learns a little something from each success or mistake. It is through these high school experiences that we each mature and become the person we want to be.

Hey, Relax Troy!!!

I'm just one out of 400
Sometimes I don't feel

2. To make an earnest attempt; strive.
3. To exert oneself.

"Hey Michelle", I'll trade you for your Donald Duck coloring book!!

Ok you two, fifty push ups for smiling

YOU "GOTTA" KEEP SMILING

There are more smiles than just those smiles of laughter or of embarrassment. How about the smile of anticipation when they announced the 1980-81 Homecoming Queen, or the smile of relief when report cards were issued and you received a C- instead of that dreaded D. Remember your well-rehearsed smile on the stage of "You Can't Judge a Book by its Cover." The biggest smile of all came on picture taking day when you said "Cheese!!"

SUMMER ENDS . . . MEMORIES BEGIN

FALLING INTO ANOTHER SCHOOL YEAR

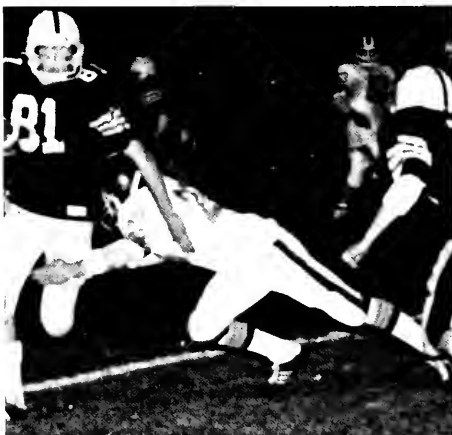

The Fall season is portrayed by warm sweaters and cold football games . . . but LHS Fall also means alot more than that. It is a time for students to begin school and recreation activities that go with the season. We gather in the halls, with new and old friends, to exchange stories about summer vacation.

. . . It is time to settle down in our new classes and Hit the Books!!

SAINTS' PERFORMANCE POWER 5-2 CONFERENCE SEASON

COACH MIKE PERRY:

"With a couple of breaks this season, I feel we were good enough to do good 7-2. Our second place finish in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference was a bright spot because we are by far the smallest school in the 8-school conference. This was the best group of athletes I have ever coached."

Mr. Perry has been head football coach for four years. Prior to that he was an Assistant coach for six years. He is assisted by Mr. Rick Ledy and Mr. Steve Spencer.

A show of "sportsmanship" as a Gaylor Blue Devils helps "Saint" Bill Pope.

Homecoming was as always an event filled with much excitement and many surprises. All the individual classes took part in the festivities and contributed their creative talents by presenting their floats to the public on Homecoming day. The evening celebration was filled with school spirit, and tough football action. We certainly enjoyed ourselves and had fellowship with our classmates ... Homecoming '80 was a huge success.

COACH RUSS LORENTE:

The 1980-81 season proved to be another exciting season. We placed 2nd in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference behind a tough Charlevoix team. High expectations lead to another district win and a trip to the Regionals.

Spirit ran high during Girls Basketball season. Second in Conference District Champions as the Saints topped Manistique and Newberry . . . Surge on to State Regional Tournament to lose heartbreaker to Ontanogan.

WINTER ... BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

REFLECTIONS OF BEAUTY AND THE BEAST ... Winters blanket of white is a beautiful sight to behold ... (except when your car is buried under it!!!) School responsibilities and winter recreation activities keep up busy throughout the winter months. Some time during the month of March as we start feeling a bit restless and are hoping SPRING is just hidden under that sparse "white blanket" a Beast of a storm arrives to make winter just a week or two longer ... maybe we'll get another snow day!!!

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL 1980-1981

RECORD 28-5 OVERALL II-I CONFERENCE

The 1980 Team was a hard act to follow . . . who would be this years top receiver, Bruno champ, and Killer server? Who would take Glenda's place in the back row and Luann's place at the net? These thoughts plagued Coach and player alike as the season seemed to start off all wrong in the first match against Gaylord. Firm determination, pride, and "Saint Power" took hold as Barb stepped into sister Glenda's adidas and lead the team in serve receptions to be voted the teams most valuable defensive player; Cindy Lichlyter dominated the net as much as a sophomore as Luann had as a senior; and Shauna Hensley slammed spike after spike down the opponents throats all season. The Saints once again, under the leadership of Captain Sandy Halberg, Coach Clarlyn McKinnon and assistant Coach Valerie Ward, came in #1 in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference. To add to their spot in the Trophy case came a 1st place win in the 2nd Annual St. Ignace Invitational. Honors awarded to others on the team were: Most Improved: Cindy Lichlyter Most Valuable: Shauna Hensley. All Conference: Cindy Lichlyter, Shauna Hensley, Sandy Halberg. Honorable Mention: Cindy Massey, Barb Pemble.

This year's record was not an indication of the quality team we had. It was one of those years where the ball just didn't bounce the right way in the close games. The guys, however, stuck together, didn't blame anyone but themselves and never quit, which makes them winners in the more important game of life.

a combination of seven talented girls, hard work and "daring" enthusiasm makes the 1980-81 cheerleading squad a hard act to follow. Senior Laurie Walker leads with seven years of experience and dedication (you didn't see Laurie much in the mounts because she was always the "hidden base.") Senior Tina Rutledge ... you may think Tina to be the "quiet one" ... but when she talked we all listened! Sandy Droskie, nerves of steel, (she could scale Castle Rock if we wanted her to!!!) always climbed as high as we could possibly go. (It's a good thing Mr. Perry doesn't know a 2-tier mount from a 4-tier mount!) Juniors Jill Belonga and Cindy Lehto we couldn't have done without ... especially Jill's always smiling expression and Cindy's easy going ways. (they both did a great job) Next year we'll do the "prance" just for you twoll

... and to make the squad complete, two Super Sophomores with Super Spirit: the two and only (!) Bubba (Bubbles) LaLonde and Tammy (McKinna) McKinna ... Tammy please stay off your elbows and Bubba why did we always walk (Or run) away from you at practice and leave you by yourself????

... you girls put alot into cheerleading and it SHOWED.

VARSITY CHEERLEADING SQUAD SMILE AS THEY RECEIVE THE REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY
 ... And a special thank you to Nancy Walker (mother, fan, friend etc.) who took us under her wing when KKK took a winter "vacation". Without her we wouldn't have made it to the Regional and State Finals. THANK YOU. (she is especially proficient in relaying "pep talks" over the phone!!)

The LaSalle Players' season opened at McCann School with four performances of two Christmas plays; The Little Match Girl, starring Cathy Belonga, and a mime show, It's Sad, So Sad, When an Elk Goes Bad, starring Julie Boynton, Troy Faleris, Kathy Fitzpatrick, and C.J. Stoyka. The same week, the mime troupe took its show to Engadine for a school performance.

After Christmas, seven players wrote and produced "You Can't Judge a Book by its Cover," a skit to promote books for a Reading Is Fundamental program at Gros Cap school, and they spent an afternoon performing their skit in the elementary classrooms.

In the spring, the players did another mime show, The Puppet-Master, performed by Troy Faleris, Cindy Lehto, and Donna Colegrove, and a Jules Feiffer play, Feiffer's People, in which Julie Boynton, Tim Dahms, Troy Faleris, Kathy Fitzpatrick, Sisan Irwin, Jeff St. Louis, Brenda Stilson, C.J. Stoyka and Laurie Walker recreated many of Feiffer's character in You Can't Judge a Book by its Cover series of vignettes.

In all, thirty-eight students participated in the casts and crews of the drama club this year, and the underclassmen have already begun reading catalogues and ordering scripts as they plan their next season.

KING AND QUEEN
Steve Tamlyn and Kerry Halberg

On the evening of May 8, 1981, the Junior Class of LaSalle High School presented the 1981 Class Annual Juniors Prom to the community. 36 couples enjoyed an evening of dancing to the music of "Kix." The hall was beautiful with silver star, white clouds, arches, a stairway, and a flowing water fountain all decorated to the theme of "Stairway To Heaven." Steve Tamlyn and Kerry Halberg were chosen by their classmates to hold the honor of King and Queen. The pre-prom dinner was catered by Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaPorte. THE CLASS OF "81"

I guess this is the day, for all to say good-bye
Some will smile, some will frown, and some will even cry.
We have drifted all together now we're drifting all apart,
But it's not just an ending it's also a new start.
We've waited long-for this day and now we're ready to go,
Just what will become of us only we will know.
Each of us will take a step into a new life,
It may be doctor, lawyer, teacher-and even husband or wife.
But whatever each one has chosen that will be the best,
We each are out-on our own and now, different from the rest.
We will all try our hardest and climb to reach the top,
Because we're the class of "81" and at nothing will we stop!
We are out to prove ourselves to go as far as we can get,
Even if we're looking good now we haven't started yet.
So now we'd like to say good-bye to our teachers and our friends,
And we won't forget any of you because our friendships never end ...
The twelve years are done and we've only just begun.

TODAY . . . IS ONLY A MEMORY.

One of the greatest gifts you can give yourself is a friend. No matter what, you can turn to him and find him ready to help. He seems to know when to talk and when to listen. Also, when you need to share your secrets and dreams, the person you can trust them with is your friend. At some time in your life, the two of you may go your separate ways, but true friendship never dies, for a friend is FOREVER.

High School Principal
Ronald R. Dahms

"It is my sincere hope that we have established an educational program in LaSalle High School that has and will prepare every student that graduates to be able to further this education and/or adequately prepare him to accept a job and be a successful contributor to our society."

Ronald R. Dahms

In 1862 Abraham Lincoln said, "Upon the subject of education, I can say that I view it as the most important subject which we as a people can be engaged in." With that thought in mind, I believe we as educators, have a mandate to expect and demand high standards in academic achievement and disciplinary conduct. We must provide a solid foundation for each student to enable that person to succeed in the career of his or her choice and to be a contributing member of society.

Jerry L. Gallagher

Community Education Director
Fred W. Starnes

Community Education is a process which strives to learn the needs of the community and then address itself to meeting those needs, utilizing, as much as possible, resources from within the community itself. It is my hope that we on the Community Education staff can join with members of the community and work together to help make the Straits area a better place to live, through education and enrichment programs developed by the community.

ORGANIZATIONS

I'M PART OF A GROUP

There are many like me working to make LHS a better place. As a part of a group, I might preside over a meeting, lead yells at a basketball game, run for a pass, break a track record, playing the band or attend a meeting. I am an integral part of LHS for without me and my group, there would be no extra-curricular activities.

... YEARBOOK STAFF ...

I told you next time you were late for a meeting you'd be in trouble!

Loni LaVake, Crystal Paquin, Denise Sved, Patrice Sved, Joy Olsen
Staff taking a well deserved rest

Thank you Crystal, Loni, Patrice, Joy, and Denise for the terrific job of organizing pages, typing, taking pictures, collecting ads etc. and even without a complaint (well, maybe one or two!) This page is dedicated to you for all your hours upon hours of work (especially those endless early Saturday mornings!) You Are Great!!

Within the pages of Endeavor '81, we hope that we have captured the moments of seriousness and fun, winning and losing, and of triumph and tragedy that made 1980-81 special for us. The pictures and words which compose this book will, hopefully, allow us to remember the past as we venture into the future. THANK YOU To our ADVERTISERS who made this yearbook possible. Without your generous support this project couldn't be attempted. To Mr. Peter Kelly & the St. Ignace News for all the pictures and negatives (and all the interrupting phone calls from A. Massey and T. Young!) To Tom Keisiwetter (Robert Redford snile/Burt Reynolds charm) our Josten's Rep. who helped with our ad campaign, budget, supplies, and advice and encouragement (what advice?!!) during the year. To Mr. Thompson (Thompson Studio, Manistique for the beautiful pictures, and his discount prices! To Carrie Will for proof reading, Brent Synder and Mary Ann St. Louis for typing (they'll do anything to get out of S.H.) To Crystal Green and Lisa Sorenson for helping with at "Little Critter" 8th hours!!

It's been a Great Year ...

TAKE THE WORLD AS YOU FIND IT ... BUT LEAVE IT BETTER. CLASS OF 1981

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT
Jack Randall Martin

SENIOR CLASS SECRETARY
Barbara Lynn Pemble

SENIOR CLASS SPEAKER
James Ryan North

Our student speakers at graduation, Jack, Barb, and Jim, recalled experiences the class has shared, and looked forward to the rapid changes ahead for the Class of 1981.

Father Landreville was the commencement speaker chosen by the Class of 1981. "You have quietly handled problems that are new and different." Father Norbert Landreville told the 81 graduating seniors. "And you have won all of us over by your willingness to be friendly and not exclusive."

As the junior members of the National Honor Society held traditional garlands of cedar bough and fresh flowers in arches over the heads of the procession of graduates, members of the LaSalle High School bands played under the direction of Wayne LeGreve. Each graduate held a diploma just received from the president of the Board of Education, James Brown, who joined with their principal, Rom Dahms and the superintendent of schools, Jerry Gallagher, in bidding the class farewell.

REMEMBER A FACE
RECALL A PLACE
RELIVE A GAME
REMEMBER A NAME

Through this entire year we had our problems and rough times, but we endured and came out spotless except for a few "smudges" picked up along the way. More and more we are being called upon to think and act sensibly. We must heed the old story and think before we act. Somewhere behind this whole-school experience there is a lesson to be learned. What exactly the lesson is no one can say for sure. We must seek to find the meaning of this lesson at all times, strive for unity and harmony.

Now some of us are leaving the rest, and some will stay behind ... to carry on.
